

Notes:

Goodbye

Interview Questions:

To whom have you had to say goodbye? When you graduate, who will you miss the most in your family? Who will you miss most of your friends? Which teacher will be the most difficult to leave? With whom do you think you will stay in touch?

What is your favorite “goodbye” word? Tell me under what circumstances did you experience a goodbye that was emotionally very difficult. Describe the feelings you have when leaving relatives that you see rarely. What do you say to your parents in the morning when telling them “goodbye”? What will you remember most fondly about high school? What will you be glad you no longer have to do once you leave high school?

When do you plan to tell your friends from high school goodbye when you graduate? When vacationing, when do you have the opportunity to renew friendships from the past? Describe a time when saying “goodbye” was incredibly awkward?

Where have you lived and then had to move and leave good friends? Do you prefer to express your goodbyes in public or in private?

Why do you find saying “goodbye” difficult or easy? Will you maintain a connection to high school? Why? How do you feel about saying goodbye to high school? How did you get over having to say “goodbye”?

Poll/Survey Question:

After a goodbye, how do you stay in touch?

- |                                       |  |
|---------------------------------------|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Phone calls  | <input type="checkbox"/> Texting           |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Facetime     | <input type="checkbox"/> Cards and letters |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Social media | <input type="checkbox"/> Other (list):     |

Photo Possibilities:

- Snapshot photo of friends made during vacation
- Dropping relatives off at the airport
- Taking a sibling to college
- Saying goodbye to mom and/or dad in the morning
- Emotional parting graduation photos

Module Ideas:

- Photos and quotes package focused on having to say “goodbye”
- Poll and survey results in the form of an infographic
- Photo montage of diverse kinds of goodbye situations
- Anecdotes about reuniting after an initial goodbye
- Word cloud of “goodbye” expressions