

Notes:

Homecoming Royalty

Interview Questions: Ask members of the court.

- Have you been on the court before this year? Who outside of school did you first tell you had been nominated? Did you think who won would actually win? Who was your escort? Which of your friends were also nominated for royalty?
- What is the process for being nominated for homecoming royalty? What did you think when you were announced as a part of the court?
- When did you learn you had been nominated?
- Where were you when you learned you had been nominated? Where did you get ready for the homecoming game?
- Why do you think you were nominated? Why is homecoming such a big deal at school?
- How did you tell your family and outside of school friends that you had been nominated? How long was it from the time you were nominated and the final crowning and how was the wait?
- For winner(s): Who did you think of besides yourself? What did you think your chances were of winning? Tell me about that moment when you knew it was you who had won. Why do you think you were selected? Describe the best part of the entire process and of homecoming week.

Poll/Survey Question:

- What one emotion describes your feelings about being selected to the homecoming court?

Photo Possibilities:

- Reactions of nominees and top royalty when announced
- Photographs of nominees participating in the week's activities
- Royalty pep rally shots
- Crowning ceremony photographs
- Royalty cheering at the game

Module Ideas:

- Photos of candidates during the game
- Collection of formal royalty shots with escorts
- Quotes with reaction photos of homecoming royalty candidates
- Word cloud listing of the emotions that the homecoming royalty felt
- Crowning action/reaction photo of the top royalty
- Montage of photos of the candidates involved in other homecoming activities like dress-up days
