

CRITICAL THINKING: Communicate, Create, ICT | Photography

There is a time in every professional's life when there's a need to produce a lot of high-quality work in a short amount of time. Professionals must be able to triage the duties that need to be accomplished and rank them according to what is most important and what is easily accomplished. This assignment allows you to practice those skills while working as a team and using technology.

YEARBOOK SCAVENGER HUNT

Scavenger hunt will run from today until _____.

Names of students in group: _____

RULES:

- You will work in groups. Play nice!
- You will not allow more than one photographer in a classroom at any time. This is VERY IMPORTANT. Groups must be quiet while in halls near classrooms.
- A posed photo may be acceptable if there is artistic merit for it.
- Photos need to be natural candid. No groups of kids with arms around one another.
- People should appear in only one picture. Do not use the same person/people for another shot.

1 POINT	2 POINTS	3 POINTS	4 POINTS	5 POINTS
A photo that is taken with the camera held vertically.	A photo that shows your definition of friends.	A student doing homework.	A photo that utilizes the rule-of-thirds.	A class with something going on besides desk work (science projects, group work, acting, etc.).
Students at lunch.	A photo of ending the school day.	A photo of starting the school day.	A photo that shows a repetition of pattern.	A student or students doing an out-of-school sport (i.e. rock climbing, mountain biking, etc.).
Students in the hall.	Students in a special place in the school.	Students at a hangout outside of school.	A photo taken from below looking up, also called worm's eye view.	A photo that has a shallow depth-of-field (the foreground is crisp and the background is blurry).
Creative free shot.	A photo taken from above looking down, also called bird's eye view.	A photo that shows your definition of school spirit.	A student getting ready for a school activity.	A student showing strong emotion at something that just happened.
An athlete in uniform.	A fan watching a sports event.	An action shot of a student doing a school sport.	A student who supports a sports team but isn't on the team (team manager, cheerleaders, commentator).	An athlete or athletes preparing for a competition.
Points from this column _____	Points from this column _____	Points from this column _____	Points from this column _____	Points from this column _____

TOTAL POINTS _____

Do you have any photos good enough to enter in the Jostens Photo Contest? Enter online at jostens.com/photocontest

